Design Specifications for Tall Buildings
Extension Worksheet

1. Write down your own design brief for a building (not for offices or residential purposes). Examples of alternative uses include hotels and banks. Remember to be concise.

Design Brief

2. Now write down a specification suitable for this type of building.

Specification

3. Sketch a few initial ideas for buildings that meet your specification, noting down the key features which help it meet the specification.